I do NOT wish to make a personal submission at the hearing, and ask that this written submission be considered.

I wish to talk to the main points in my written submission at the hearings to be held between Tuesday 7 June and Friday 10 June 2005.

Although I have been involved in the St Albans community as a volunteer for a couple of weeks I believe that it offers a range of services that help and contribute to the community.

I am a volunteer in the neighbourhood net, a cheap source of internet and email as well as a free source of information on how to use computers.

The people who use this resource range from beneficiaries (both of all types) to ~~at~~ people struggling to make ends meet. (ie cannot afford internet cafes or internet at home)

I think that reducing funding or closing it down will hurt the community because not only does it offer a very wide range of services and help to the community, ~~it~~ at most importantly it fosters a sense of community
