Planned Services

The Robert McDougall Art Gallery is a public art museum located in the Botanic Gardens and in the Art Annex at the Arts Centre. The museum's main services are:

- Maintaining and developing an important collection of artworks.
- Mounting both exhibitions from the permanent collection and touring exhibitions of historical and contemporary artworks.
- Providing information and advice on the visual arts for the community through a broad range of exhibition-related public programmes.

The Gallery comprises exhibition and storage venues air conditioned to international standards. It houses a permanent collection numbering 4,500 items including historical and contemporary paintings, sculptures, works on paper (drawings, water colours, prints and photography), and decorative which include glass, ceramics and textiles. A gallery shop helps to defray some of the Gallery's overhead costs by selling art publications, giftware, reproductions and related craft items.

Overall Service Objective

These services contribute towards the following Council Strategic Objectives: A1, A2, A3 and A4 (see page 27).

In summary the aim is:

 To enhance the cultural well-being of the community through the cost effective provision and development of a public art museum, to maximise enjoyment of visual art exhibitions, and to promote public appreciation of Canterbury art and more widely, the national cultural heritage by collecting, conserving, researching and disseminating knowledge about art.

Objectives for 1999/00

- 2. Continue the programme of artworks conservation.
- 3. Acquire art works and develop the collection.
- Provide a programme of exhibitions of excellence representing best achievements of New Zealand and International art.
- 5. Provide a programme of cultural and educational activities focused on the visual arts.
