

CHRISTCHURCH CITY COUNCIL

Election of SEVEN (7) Members of the Canterbury District Health Board

Andrew DICKERSON

Independent

I have 20 years experience in the health and disability sector and am Chief Executive of Age Concern Canterbury, a large charitable organisation offering support services to older people in our community.

I have worked in three hospitals in New Zealand, including Christchurch Hospital.

I am very concerned at the direction our public health service has taken in recent years. If elected I will work hard to improve access to elective surgery and promote better integration between Hospital and GP services.

I have a deep commitment to working co-operatively with other health agencies and health professionals. Improving relationships between management and clinical staff at the District Health Board is a high priority for me.

Above everything else I want to see public confidence in our health services restored and Canterbury District Health Board recognised as a centre of excellence in healthcare that we can all be proud of.
