

CHRISTCHURCH CITY COUNCIL

Election of SEVEN (7) Members of the Canterbury District Health Board

Richard BEDDIE

Current CEO of Fitness New Zealand, the industry association representing the health & fitness industry, Richard offers a wealth of experience working at board level of organisations in governance roles. A successful Health & Business centre owner for more than 14 years, and recipient of an MBA from Canterbury University in 2001.

Main issues: Increasing focus on wellness and prevention rather than just treating “sickness”; working collaboratively with other DHB’s and national health organisations to explore better ways of getting greater return for the limited dollars available; and providing greater interaction between board members and the community they serve.

“More than ever before, Canterbury needs robust, effective representation and a higher level of accessibility and accountability. With your support, I will bring youth, energy and considerable experience to that task and a commitment to developing a more relevant and effective health service for our district”.
