I do NOT wish to speak at the hearings
Language of the hearings from I-11 June.
We strongly disagree with the councils unilateral decision to redesignate the land at the above address to residential.
Our reasons for disagreement are!
- the majority of this land is used for rural purposes with approximately 1500 7 year old pines
- there is restricted use of this land because of council policy regarding living 15 land.
- We received an assurance from Former counciler Margaret Murray and from Former councilor Gamp More (now the current mayor) that the acring of this land would not change until it was permitted to be Sub divided
- Also our rates bill clourly shows that We currently pay for water is severge services to this property.
All we ask for is some honesty and integraty.
