Councillors

I am writing in support of everything the CCC is doing with a few suggestions.

Christchurch should be trying to become an example city such as Melbourne. Even though we have a small population positioning ourselves for the future is most important.

I'm not sure some of the existing Councillors would have had the forethought of Councillors 140 years ago?

Some things needed:

1 Security. It is time this city was given back to the people, families, and peaceful folk.

Society is so bloody PC now that gangs, thugs etc seem to be allowed to dictate the atmosphere in this city. A recent friend of mine (a prominent Melbourne Publisher) said when she walked Ch-Ch streets she felt an undercurrent that made her feel uneasy??????

Where are the police-certainly not working night shift!!

2. Reducing car movements by creating a clean modern transport system that ordinary people want to use. Go and stand in the bus depot, it is very enlightening and disturbing. Ballantynes must hate it. Underground rail must be planned for etc etc.

3 It is a disgrace to not have taken up the Lady Isaacs rowing lake proposal. Ch-Ch could have be a centre for all sorts of water regattas with a quality facility in that location. Small minded councillors win again E!!

4 Narrowing Victoria st with Plane trees and wider footpaths creating a one way road either in or out of town. This Would connect Papanui tourist area with the city.

5 The idea of building a café in place of the Police Kiosk is an excellent one. The existing Kiosk is an eye sore. The Police could go to the periphery of the square or be accommodated above the Café, they should also be visible through glass not hidden away behind concrete walls as is the case now.

6 Rates: Why not show the rate increase as; an amount, less the annual rate of inflation, which is outside your control and must be allowed for anyway. Ch-Ch provides superior amenities close to the people for the amount of rates we pay compared to other cities. Go and live in Auckland etc and see what you get.

Could go on and on but don't want to bore you.

Lastly: Support Gary Moore, he is an excellent Mayor, fighting for Ch-Ch. Some of you Councillors need to take a good look at yourselves with your anti-progressive thinking. Remember "A city with out vision will die")
